SHORTWAVE STATIONS.

RIVERSIDE RADIO INTERNATIONAL...6210kHz.....Co. Kilkenny
PREMIER RADIO INTERNATIONAL.....6218kHz.....Co. Dublin
RADIO RAINBOW INTERNATIONAL.....6240kHz.....Co. Louth
WESTSIDE RADIO INTERNATIONAL.....6280kHz.....Co. Dublin
RADIO SKYWAVE INTERNATIONAL.....6850kHz/6260kHz.....Co. Dublin
RADIO DUBLIN.....6910kHz.....Co. Dublin

Most shortwave stations are run as a hobby, and as such are only on the air at the weekend, mainly Sunday. A signal strength is not given, as reception conditions on the shortwave bands vary not only from day to day, but from minute to minute.

Radio Rainbow also operate on 1521kHz medium wave with 1 kW, and 96.5MHz FM stereo with 50 watts. The MW transmitter enables those listening between the groundwave and the skip area, to receive the transmissions with a good signal. Many other stations (mostly tapes from the U.K) pay to have their programmes relayed via these transmitters on a Sunday morning. Former operator of FRC Ireland, Kieren Murray hosts a 'Free Radio Show' most Sunday's between 11:00 and 12:00gmt. This is broadcast on all three Radio Rainbow frequencies.

The transmitter of Radio Ireland International, who used to operate on 6310kHz, now sometimes carries a relay of the 'Two Tony's' programme as broadcast by local Co. Dublin stations. Other relays are carried at times.

The shortwave transmissions from Radio Dublin, are mainly a simultaneous relay of their local service on 1188kHz medium wave and 105MHz FM. They do however, broadcast programmes from the Dutch organisation, World Music Radio, on occasions.

Transmitters on 6318kHz and 7315kHz based in the Irish Republic are used to relay the programmes of Scottish stations Radio Stella and WLR at various times on a Sunday.

Another transmitter, this time located in the Co. Kerry region, on 7361kHz, carries programmes from Radio 101 (a Belgian FM station) on a Sunday morning, although at times, it has been heard to relay a local FM station, most recently South West Radio.

After a break of several weeks, Radio Skywave is now again broadcasting its own programmes. Relays of other stations have also been heard recently via their transmitters.

Riverside Radio International also broadcast programmes from other SW stations, and quite often also transmit a live relay of ABC Radio in Waterford.

Westside Radio International also feature relays of other stations, on most Sunday mornings. Each Sunday at 11:00gmt, the operator of this long established station, Prince Terry, hosts a Free Radio programme, which consists of news and letters received during the previous 7 days.
