IRISH FREE RADIO IS ALIVE

I HAVE a choice of stations, Piccadilly and Radio City, and both station formats sound exactly the same to me. Local commercial radio isn't much better than Radio One, which I find is a big load of rubbish. My contender for the best station is Radio Caroline, which is free of government censorship and was responsible for pop radio in Britain. Without Radio Caroline to listen to, I think I would throw all my seven radios in the nearest lake.

WHAT HAPPENED RADIO DUBLIN ?.....

Casual listeners to RADIO DUBLIN will have noticed a change in the stations presenters, programming and format. Whether this 'change' is for better, or worse, is for you, the listeners to decide. But to get back to our heading 'WHAT HAPPENED RADIO DUBLIN ?' - basically, it was a disagreement over station policy between THE CAPTAIN (engineer) and DOCTOR DON (D.J.) It was a make or break situation, with the future of the station and its chances of legalisation in the balance. DOCTOR DON resigned from the station and with him went PRINCE TERRY and PAUL DOWNEY. That just left THE CAPTAIN. The D.J's from PREMIER ATLANTIS RADIO - JIMMY ST. LEDGER, ALISTER MAC and JOHNNY DAY - came and filled the slots vacated by the former members. A new female D.J. (SYLVIA) joined the station and works full time. The wavelength remains the same - 253 metres/ 1185 kilohertz - only the address has changed to: 20 RANELAGH, DUBLIN 6.

In July, DOCTOR DON joined forces with ALTERNATIVE RADIO DUBLIN, a station that started exactly one year ago as an alternative to RADIO DUBLIN! A.R.D. moved from its old wavelength of 217 metres to 257 metres/1165 khz. PAUL DOWNEY and PRINCE TERRY also joined A.R.D. and the mailing address is: 1 STREAMSTOWN, MALAHIDE, CO. DUBLIN.

THE HISTORY OF RADIO SEAGULL.....

Radio Seagull was first formed as RADIO RAHENY in July 1976 with a small transmitter and an inverted L aerial, this gave a range of about 2 miles. Transmissions at that time were mainly of experimental and test nature and consisted mostly of music. The hours and dates of transmission from then until April 1977 were a bit erratic.

In April Radio Raheny changed its name to RADIO SEAGULL, increased its power and changed its location. It was then that the V aerial was erected. It has since undergone modification to increase transmission distance and to improve clarity.

In late May RADIO SEAGULL increased the transmitter power and began to settle to a steadier timetable. In July the gear was modified to reduce transmission hum and to improve the signal strength. By the end of July we had arrived at our present timetable.

Our aim as a radio station is to play mainly album tracks usually of a progressive nature. This includes both old and New Wave music as this is not a service given by the state station. Our call sign is: "This is RADIO SEAGULL broadcasting on 263 metres on the Medium Wave - that's a frequency of 1200 kilohertz." In the near future we intend to use the song 'Sister Seagull' by Be Bop Deluxe as our signature tune.

Transmission time: 10.00am to 8.00pm Sat & Sun. Wavelength: 263 metres. Frequency: 1200 kilohertz
 Aerial: 130 feet copper wire V shape, end fed by 75 ohm co-axial cable. Height: 28 feet (approx.)
 Equipment: Single BSR deck with ceramic mono cartridge. Mono domestic cassette recorder. Mono valve reel to reel tape recorder which functions as both modulator and amplifier. Transmitter: Home designed and built, Hartley v.f. oscillator, powered by a 15 volt 2A rectified mains supply.
 Power output: 15 watts, which, with present aerial, gives SINPO ratings of 54334 at 8 miles.

3 FLASHBACK: THE GOLDEN DAY OF FREE RADIO.....

Sunday, September 10th, 1972 must have been the most memorable day for Irish Free Radio. On that day, no less than five stations were on the air - each with its own individual format. 300 metres came alive with the sound of RADIO MELINDA at 11.00am. This station had a good variety of music, from Top 20 to Oldies! At 12.00 midday on 253 metres came RADIO DUBLIN - a heavy rock 'progressive' station. At 1.00pm on 217 metres came RADIO LAXEY - mainly 'Old Time' music. At 2.00pm two more stations opened up:- RADIO VALLERI on 196 metres and RADIO CAROLINE on 227m. This gave us the best Free Radio choice we ever had. However, except for RADIO VALLERI and RADIO DUBLIN, the rest had no 'sticking power' - and unfortunately it's this that counts if you are to survive. (Based on an article that appeared in 'NEWSLETTER' No.1).

"CAPITAL CATCHING UP WITH RADIO ONE.....

London's commercial radio station Capital Radio is fast catching up with BBC Radio One for its city audience, the first national survey of commercial radio stations shows. Capital has increased its audience by 100,000 in the last six months bringing their total number to a staggering 4,212,000, a 23 per cent share of the London radio audience, compared with Radio One's 23.89 per cent. Meanwhile, Wolverhampton's Beacon Radio was found to be listened to by approximately a third of the population." - From Record Mirror, 16-7-77.

THE RADIO DUBLIN NEWS RAP.....

So much has been happening on the BIG D scene that rather than try to squeeze it into the Newsdesk section, we've given it a column of its own....New RADIO DUBLIN D.J. SYLVIE doing well for herself with promotion by the SUNDAY INDEPENDENT, SUNDAY WORLD and SCENE magazine....RADIO DUBLIN D.J. FOR VOICE OF PEACE - DAVE C has joined the broadcasting staff of the Peace Ship. DAVE is the first Irish D.J. ever to be on the station. We hope to have a first hand account of his experience in the February Edition No.3. You read it first in 'SOUNDS ALTERNATIVE'.....During the recent elections, RADIO DUBLIN had an 'ELECTION SPECIAL' - a first for any pirate. Also, the programme ran for 24 hours from 10.00pm Friday to 10.00pm Saturday, June 18th, with 1,000 watts. This was another 'first' for the station as no station (either pirate or state controlled) has ever broadcast for 24 hours in this country!.....The Editor had a very good time at the RADIO DUBLIN DISCO on Wed. July 20th. It took place at the Ormond Hotel from 7.00pm to 11.30pm. This was the largest crowd ever seen at a BIG D get-together. Great time had by all, including a visit by KEN RYAN of 'SCENE' magazine...At the end of July, RADIO DUBLIN presented their biggest ever spectacle yet: 'THE AUGUST BANK HOLIDAY SPECIAL' - this show began at 2.00pm Saturday, July 30th, and went right through to 2.00am Tuesday, August 2nd 1977. A total of 60 hours continuous broadcasting was accomplished; while 1,610 phone calls were received! D.J's who took part in the marathon include: ALISTER MAC, DEREK JONES (of RADIO VALLERI), SYLVIE, ARNO ST JUDE (of A.R.D.), ROLAND BURKE, JOHNNY DAY, KEN RYAN (Editor of 'SCENE' magazine), JIMMY ST. LEDGER, KENNETH EDWARDS (the original founder of RADIO DUBLIN back in 1966), MARK BOLAND (of WEEKEND MUSIC RADIO), D.J. FRANCIS (of RADIO CAROLINE), PAUL DOWNEY (taped show), BIG GER, PEADER COUGHLIN, BILLY THE KID and KENNETH MURPHY (who is your FRC Editor!)... August 14th was marked on the BIG D by an 'OFFSHORE SPECIAL' - presented by JIMMY ST LEDGER.....

"LOCAL RADIO.....

At a time when the country is in such a shambles, its ridiculous that RTE should be forging ahead with plans to introduce the second channel. We don't need a second channel. One's enough. A much more sensible proposition would be to set up local radio stations throughout the country, - a plan R.T.E. seems to have shelved. Local radio could provide a valuable service to the community by giving a much needed means of expression to local interests around the country." ++Extract from an article by KIERAN FLYNN which appeared in 'SCENE' magazine, June Edition++

SKULL AND BONES RADIO SYSTEM.....

The staff of S.B.R.S. consists of D.J's MICK TAYLOR, THE FREAKY PHANTOM, AL STEWARD and myself GARY ST. JOHN. We all wanted to start a station - but a station with a 'wierd' name. Hence: "SKULL AND BONES RADIO SYSTEM", getting its name from the Free Radio symbol. We got two different locations and set up all the gear which consists of four BSR mono decks, two tape decks and two mono 4-channel mixers. We've just commenced transmissions on Short Wave, 6265.5 khz. ++More on this station in our November Edition - Ed++

WEEKEND MUSIC RADIO - Landbased in Dublin.....

In 1976 I began transmissions on 97.0 Mhz on F.M. with a power of 300 milliwatts under the name of 007 RADIO, later to be incorporated with F41 AUDIO DUBLIN - a small station that broadcast for only four weeks. D.J. was A.K.H. and programmes went out during the summer on Saturdays and Sundays. The equipment was a Philips music centre and Dynamic mic.

By October 1976, the power was increased to 1.8 watts and three weeks later to 12 watts using a new transmitter. New frequency was 100 Mhz and D.J.'s were MARK BOLAND, RVM and NVM. Equipment was improved and Trio amps, twin Trio record decks, Trio reel to reel and a Trio cassette deck was added. A mailing address was found:- 13 The Chase, Crawley, Sussex, England.

By now the station was operating from South Dublin for 3 hours on Sunday mornings - 11.00am to 2.00pm. Due to various technical reasons the F.M. service had to be dropped. At present we are getting ready to broadcast on 222 metres/1350 khz on Sunday mornings with D.J.'s MARK BOLAND, STEVE JACOBS and DAVE CHRISTIAN - with power around 60 watts. Equipment now consists of Trio Hi-Fi as before but we now have a jingle machine with full mixing facilities. We play all kinds of Pop and Country music. Anyone wanting a Q.S.L. should send us a reception report plus return postage costs. Those who just want to get in touch with us can contact us via the address below, and if they wish, they can leave a telephone number and we will 'phone them immediately and solve any problems or just have a chat about the station and Free Radio in general. Also, anyone wanting a tape of one of our programmes should send us a blank C-60 cassette and we will gladly oblige. Our address is: W.M.R., c/o 13 The Chase, Crawley, Sussex, RH10 6HW, England.

MARK BOLAND of W.M.R.
